

George Douglas Papers annotated transcription

Volume VI

Folder 5 daybook of N L Douglas

Version 2.0

September 2026

Prepared for Volney Douglas

From scans supplied by Abilene Christian University

Special Collections and Archives

Original wording where readable, with source locators, marked uncertainty and editorial notes.

This volume accounts for all 167 scan pages of source 08. It belongs to a set covering 932 scan pages in ten source PDFs. This AI-assisted contribution is offered for review and correction.

Reading this volume

Preparation and independence

Prepared for Volney Douglas with AI assistance in September 2026. Every new scan page received an initial visual reading, with selected enlargement, rotation, contrast adjustment and comparison against related passages within the source collection. Local Apple Vision OCR was run at four orientations on all 545 new pages as a reading aid. OCR agreement alone did not establish a reading. The other agent's transcription was excluded as a source for this addition. Reference and family readings of the new pages were prepared together from the scans; they are not independent of each other. No independent human verification or ACU endorsement is claimed. The earlier version 1.1 has its own disclosed comparison history, preserved in the previous guide and review records.

Reference and family editions

The annotated reference edition preserves readable original wording, spelling, grammar and abbreviations. Ordinary prose wrapping may be reflowed; poem lines and ledger groups are retained. Capitalization, punctuation and word division sometimes require judgment. Superscripts are generally lowered; raised numbers in the convivial journal are retained. Underlining and decorative marks are not systematically encoded. This is a direct reading transcript, not a facsimile or fully diplomatic edition. The family edition modernizes wording and explains abbreviated forms where secure. Very damaged passages sometimes receive an explicitly identified fragmentary reading rather than an invented continuous text. Financial figures remain as read and are not silently reconciled.

Uncertainty and interventions

Double square brackets identify editorial intervention. `[[word?]]` is a tentative reading; `[[illegible]]` marks unread writing, with no implied word count. `[[lost: description]]` records missing material and `[[obscured: description]]` records an obstruction. `[[deleted: text]]` and `[[inserted: text]]` distinguish readable revisions. `[[separate block: description]]`, `[[blank]]` and other descriptive markers explain layout or non-textual material. Original single brackets and question marks remain part of the source. A gap is not filled solely to make a fluent sentence or to match a related copy.

Order and evidence

The reference volumes retain PDF scan order. Editorial notes link displaced continuations and clearer related versions. The family edition also retains source-page locators, with reading-order guidance beside the relevant text. Later identifying slips remain distinct from the manuscript and may disagree with it. A name in an account does not establish kinship, ownership or parentage. Poems may use fictional speakers, aliases, satire and imagined events. Letters preserve their writers' assertions, rumors and opinions, including offensive historical language; a transcript does not verify those statements.

Locators and corrections

A page ID such as 09-003 means source 09, PDF scan page 3, counting the cover as page 1. A block ID such as 09-003-P02 identifies the second transcript block. These locators are not original manuscript page numbers. Earlier IDs are unchanged. New uncertainty IDs append U001, U002 and so on to their source-page ID. Please propose corrections with the locator, existing wording, proposed wording and supporting image evidence. The original scans remain authoritative.

A land warrant sold and news of cholera, June 5, 1854

08-096-P01 Murfreesboro Rutherford County Tenn June 5th 1854

Mr N. L. Douglass my old and tried friend your letter dated April the 25th [[inserted: came to hand on the 27th of May]] enclosing an eighty acre land warrant regularly transferred, with the request that I would dispose of it to the best advantage and pay the proceeds to Mr G. A. Sublett, which request was attended to with as much punctuality as the nature of the case would admit of. which you will learn from his receipt which you will find herein enclosed. I sent the warrant to Nashville, and ninety dollars is the highest price that can be commanded in that market, the speculators commanding ninety three in New York. I have reserved a copy of the receipt to guard against miscarriage or other accidents

08-096-P02 By the by our old friend Sublett continues in bad health I think his constitution is perfectly prostrate and that he never will regain any thing like general health again. I would here remark that the Cholera made its debut upon the City of Nashville on or about the 26th of last month, and also at several places in this County, more especially the west end of this County adjoining Davidson. There have been fifteen or twenty died in Nashville in two or three days when it first broke out, and also about the same number in this County, but it has some what abated (the weather having become more favorable to health) still there is a spirit of apprehension resting upon the bosom of the community

Editorial note. Continues on 08-097 and 08-098, signed Hicks. Insertion is placed after the letter date. Reports of health, deaths and prices are the writer's contemporary claims, not independently verified statistics.

News of the Ott family, an inheritance dispute and a criminal trial

08-097-P01 Anderson Ott has sold out his little farm near this place, and has bought a farm of about 150 acres ten miles South-east of Town on the Manchester turnpike. He and his family are all well. Nat. Ott is carrying on a shop, but his health is very delicate, last Spring twelve months he had a dangerous attack of Hemorage of the lungs, and a slight recurrence of it this Spring my opinion is that he is bleeding internally working at his trade. His family are all well at present

08-097-P02 The old gentleman John Ott died sometime in the last of January or the first of February last. Nat at the request of the children adms on his estate. There is a suit now pending in the Chancery court between the heirs relative to the distribution of the negroes and their increase that the old gentleman set apart to them some years since to be divided with their increase at his death, and Abate having some thus his proportion in his possession at his death refuses to give them up for division. Mr [[Wm Harrison?]] & family are well and doing as well as a Heart can or ought to desire

08-097-P03 Many of our good old citizens have died since you left this County, such as Major Gannaway, Jack Ransom, R Halliburten to gether with many others

08-097-P04 you have no doubt heard the whole history of Col. Sam Richardson killing Dr. W. Smith. It was a most cold blooded murder as ever was committed in his first trial he was sentenced to the Penitentiary for ten years, but got a new trial, which has not has not come off since

Editorial note. Continuation of 08-096. Historical racial terminology is retained in the direct transcript. The inheritance dispute concerns enslaved people and their children; the family reading states this explicitly. Wm Harrison's name is uncertain. The phrase around "Abate" is difficult and should be checked against the image before identifying the person. "Has not" is repeated in the source.

08-100-P02 My wife wrote a lengthy letter in answer to Rebecas address giving a history of the death of our beloved daughters and her trials on that occasion—and the Christian fortitude was all that saved her own life. My own heart was almost Broken but I concealed it from my wife and acted as a philosopher in consoling her that we had others to live for and let the will of the Lord be done— but to mention that beloved name Mary will yet make the tears flow freely May we all remember that a similar fate awaits us too—

Editorial note. Continues on 08-101 and 08-102. Wrapper 08-099 may identify the writer, but signature remains provisional. A damaged exception clause is marked. Rebeca is the writer's spelling. "Daughters" is plural as read; Mary is named later.

Money for Mrs. Douglas and illness in Lewis Jetton's household, April 1851

08-113-P01 Readyville April 28/51

Dear Sir

Your friend Lewis Jetton Esq having been unwell for some time past—My pen is employed in consequence in transmitting to you the money as directed in your last which came duly to hand—Enclosed you will find a twenty dollar bill—which is a portion of your wifes money now collected—leaving still in [[deleted: my]] his hands seven dollars & 40 cts—So soon as he is sufficiently recovered to write to you himself—you may expect another five dollar bill by mail—the remainder he will retain in his hands until he makes another draw for you which will take place about some time in Nov next.

08-113-P02 Your friends & acquaintances in this country so far as I know (with [[inserted: few]] exceptions) are well at present. Esq Jettons family except himself & one of his negro boys (Rob) are enjoying good health—The Esq after a week or two complaining was confined to his bed—(two weeks since yesterday) by fever of some kind perhaps nearer the congestive than any other—He has been under the treatment of Drs [[Crenshaw?]] & Dickens since his confinement who now pronounce him in a state of convalescence & from his appearance we hope he will be

He has not been at any time too weak to turn himself about in the bed or to get up and walk across the room without much assistance—but as his decline was slow so his recovery will probably be gradual—& it may be some weeks ere he is restored to his wonted health & vigor—The boy Rob had an attack of pneumonia or cold of some kind or other—but is nearly recovered—His son John L is at [[Burrett?]] College Spencer Vanburen Cty Tenn & from a letter I received from him last week well pleased with the institution—

08-114-P02 As you were pretty much of a politician while in this country—I will mention that Col Wm Campbell [[inserted: of Smith Cty]] is the Whig nominee for Governor & Gen Wm Trousdale (present Gov) opposes him—Mr Wm [[Bounds?]] for the senate & Richardson & Palmer for the lower branch of the Legislature comprise the whig ticket for Rutherford Cty. 08-115-P02 The spirit of internal improvement in this section of our State is progressing with rapid strides—the cars on the Nashville & Chattanooga rail road are expected at Murfreesboro by the 4th of July next—Another railroad is likely to be built from Nashville to Louisville Ky—The Murfreesboro & Woodbury turnpike (via Readyville) is rapidly completing & according to contract is to be finished by Christmas next. Another road of the same class is spoken of from Murfreesboro to Liberty (via Halls Hill or Browns Mill) the principal obstacle to be overcome is to reconcile the conflicting interests of the parties concerned on the different routes—The road sooner or later will be made—Real estate is advancing in value here & so far as I am capable of judging must continue to do so—rendering it more & more necessary for those who have not sufficient foothold in this country to remove to [[inserted: some]] congenial clime where good homes are more attainable.

Editorial note. Continues on 08-128 and following. Year, surname Low, and attorney's surname remain provisional; a heavy fold obscures part of the illness description. June 23 is clear, but the year is uncertain. The letter explicitly calls Julia Granville's aunt without specifying the exact line of kinship. Reading the entire letter, including the reference to Bell and Everett on 08-130 and the continuing enslavement of a boy on 08-129, supports 1860 for the uncertain year; the date remains marked pending further checking.

Few of the old settlers remain, January 1859

08-133-P01 Readyville Jan 4th 1859

Brother N L Douglass

Dear Sir after a long silence I have taken my seat with two candles and my [[deleted: and]] glasses on—to drop you a few lines to let you kno that we are still in the land of the living and enjoying the blessings of health hoping these lines will finde you & family enjoying the like blessing—it has been so long since

I have written to you I hardly [[lost: word at tear]] what will interest you to give you a history of your old acquaintance would be a repetition of that I heretofore written to you—for all that I will say there is but few of the old settlers alive thats living about here Esq Martin & lady is no more—several more has past away Esq Ready & uncle Jake are almost gone they are in thier dotage in a maner kno nothing—so old men are growing scarce—so they the people call me one of the old men [[inserted: the]] of neighborhood—our country has undergone a greate Chang since you left the country old man Ready and myself are the only men that resides in the same place from Woodbury to Murfreesboro—this is remarkable

Editorial note. Continues on 08-134 and following. The salutation is rendered as written but not treated alone as proof of a biological relationship. The author's description of older people's mental condition is historical language, not a diagnosis.

08-162-P04 To prove their debts and choose one or more Assignees of his Estate, will be held at a Court of Bankruptcy, to be holden on the 8th day of August, A. D., 1868, at 9 o'clock, A. M., at Murfreesboro, Tenn., before W. N. Doughty, Register.
 J. R. WARNER, Deputy U. S. Marshal, Messenger.

Editorial note. Repeated dot groups are represented consistently by an ellipsis, not by an editorial omission. The question mark after John A Conda is printed in the source. Full table retained, including blank/ditto amounts. This notice may be the enclosure mentioned in Jetton's July 1868 letter (08-112), but physical association is not proved.

Nance asks whether Douglas helped free Sam, June 1867

08-164-P01 Quincy Tenn
 June 5th 67

N. L. Douglass — Sir — I recd your verry Short epistle, accompanied by a Recept a Short time Since — In this I would ask you a Single question — Did you In any way assist In freeing the Negro Sam? I write this to know the certainty, you know, and you will please answer the question — if you answer In the affirmative I will forward to you your recept. If not, I will take grate pains to forward your money — I am verry good for the amt Claimed —

08-164-P02 Now Sir, You & I are getting old, and Soon our earthly Interests will [[deleted: have]] be at an end, Consequently I dont want to do wrong — Now all I mean in this is, If you assisted In taking my property from me, you can get your money by ligal process — If not, I will take pleasure If forwarding It to you —

Editorial note. Continues on 08-165. The final If may be a slip for in; direct wording is retained. The letter's claim of ownership and accusation are the writer's, not editorial findings.

N. L. Douglas's oath of allegiance and office

08-167-P01 Oath of Office.

I N L Douglas do solemnly swear that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the United States since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid countenance council or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have neither sought nor accepted nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever under [[deleted: the]] any authority or pretended authority in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government authority power or constitution within the United States hostile or inimical thereto; And I do further swear that to the best of my knowledge and ability I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies foreign and domestic, that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same, that I take this obligation freely without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter So help me God.

Editorial note. The reverse is labelled January 1868 (08-166). The oath names N. L. Douglas in its opening, but this scan shows no separate signature, witness, attestation or specific office. It cannot by itself prove that an official administered or accepted the oath. Original council retained.
